Weekly news update	On the 22nd and 23rd October we will be welcoming some ‘important visitors’ into our school. These visitors are a team of Head Teachers and Education Officers who come in to support Mr Todd and I on our self-evaluation. We had our Awesome Achievement Assembly this week. It was wonderful to hear how many of our children are doing wonderful things in school, in the community and in their sporting activities. Well done to everyone who returned their forms and brought in their achievements – it was fantastic to recognise you! It was lovely to see lots of yellow in the school to support World Mental Health Awareness day. Promoting Mental Health is a really important part of our school curriculum and at the heart of our values – well done everyone for helping to raise awareness about the issues surrounding mental health.
