Newsflash

- On Thursday 4th September we are inviting you all into school to join your child/ren in classes. The doors will open at 2pm.
- This week children began work in their jotters – we have a real focus on presentation this year and so we have been encouraging children to think about how they are presenting work in their jotters
- Thank you to those of you who have taken part in our 'Cost of the School Day' survey. This link will stay open for one more week so please let us know your views
- Thank you to those of you who attended our Primary 1 session. I hope you found it useful. Next week we focus on literacy again.
